On February 10, 2020, Mr. Smith received a Suspended Driver and Unregistered Vehicle summons from Rutgers Camden Police Department. According to Rutgers Police Department, Mr. Smith was pulled over for having an unregistered vehicle and no other moving violations were issued. Mr. Smith reported the law enforcement contact immediately to the undersigned officer.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Mr. Smith commenced supervised release on July 27, 2012. He is currently out on disability from his employment at Pepsi. The Special Assessment has been paid in full. On February 10, 2020, Mr. Smith was issued a summons for Unregistered Vehicle and Suspended Driver by Rutgers Camden Police Department. There were no other tickets issued on this date. Mr. Smith and his vehicle were searched for contraband and illegal substances, with no results. After Mr. Smith received the summons, he reported the contact to the undersigned officer immediately. He also admitted to having substance abuse issues and in need of detoxification. The Probation Office arranged admission to Maryville Addiction Treatment Center for short-term residential treatment and he was admitted the same day. Mr. Smith is currently at Maryville and will remain inpatient for 30-60 days.

Mr. Smith has previously received Driving While Suspended citations (November 18., 2018 and March 18, 2019). He has produced all clean drug screenings under this term of supervised release. The probation officer respectfully requests that the Court be advised of action and endorse this report, which will be served to Mr. Smith as a Letter of Reprimand from the Court after he is discharged from inpatient treatment, with no other formal legal intervention sought at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

Matthew J. Weber/ sa
